A TRUE KNIGHTS CASTLE!

In the beautiful Österlen you will find a once powerful knights castle, Glimmingehus. It is also one of the best preserved castles from the middle ages in Scandinavia. Here, there is always something happening to suit adults and children.

ONE OF THE MORE popular activities at Glimmingehus is a guided tour led by a tour leader dressed in clothes typical of the middle ages. You are shown around the castle and you learn about the mighty Danish knight, Jens Holgersen, who, in the 16th century lived at Glimmingehus. There are also lots of other things happening at the castle! Puppet shows in May, jousting tourneys for medieval knights in June and August and child-friendly ghost tours! In the autumn the Oknytt photo exhibition opens with pictures of wraiths and other ghosts and related activities. Come if you dare!

In the area around Glimmingehus you will also find a museum exhibition depicting the life of the people who lived in and around the castle in its heyday. There is also a shop and a café.

AN UNDERGROUND MAZE!

Tycarp Cave, outside the town of Hässleholm, is like something from a fantasy world with its winding paths and impressive halls of stone columns. Down here, 12 meters below ground level, young men and women have toiled to excavate valuable limestone for centuries. The only evidence that remains of their toil is a 20,000 square meter large mine. Several famous Swedish films have been recorded here.

GO ON A GUIDED tour and experience the place where films like Ronja Rövardotter, Kullamannen and the TV series Snapphanarna were recorded. Hear about limestone mining at Tykarp Cave, fantastic fossil finds that have been preserved for 88 million years and about the bats that spend the winters in the old mine.

Bats are exciting and sometimes scary animals! In times past, they were thought to bring bad luck and seen as an omen of hard times and death. But they could also bring good fortune and happiness. Today, we know more about these fantastic mammals. We know that they hibernate during autumn and winter. Sleeping, hanging upside down, they wait for warmer weather when they can take to the skies again and hunt their favorite food, insects.

Activities above and below ground level — all year round

There are lots of exciting things happening at Tykarp Cave, above and below ground level. Apart from the guided tours, you can try out underground orienteering, treasure hunts and fossil hunts. You can also follow a theme show about bats. We have special open periods for schoolchildren on Easter and autumn school breaks.

Every Wednesday evening from May to August there is a Car and Motorbike Café. Take this opportunity to admire fine vehicles and enjoy burgers made from wild meats and freshly brewed coffee and sweet cakes at the café. During the summer months there are music concerts. They are very popular events.

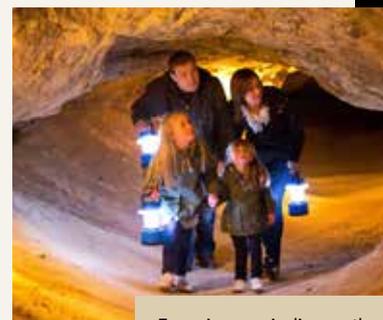

Don't miss our popular Christmas market, held every year around the second Sunday of Advent. We have stalls above and below ground level. A very unusual Christmas market indeed!

PLAN YOUR DREAM HOLIDAY!

Let the journey to your destination be part of your adventure!

SKÅNE IS NOT a big place and you can get from one coast to the other in just over an hour. You can easily squeeze in two or more destinations in one day, if you plan well!

Which places do you absolutely not want to miss? Check out this map and create your own itinerary. Summer is a long season and remember that many of the visitor destinations are open all year round.

Whether you are travelling by car, bus or train there is much to discover just by looking out the window as you travel. Observe how the nature varies from north to south and how the landscape varies from town to countryside.

Skåne also has lots of historical sites and other interesting sites. Don't forget to plan some stops along the way to take them all in.

If you want your trip to go faster, you can always play some games.

1. Challenge yourself, or someone else to find the funniest place name. Or ...
2. Be the first to see a church tower, or windmill.

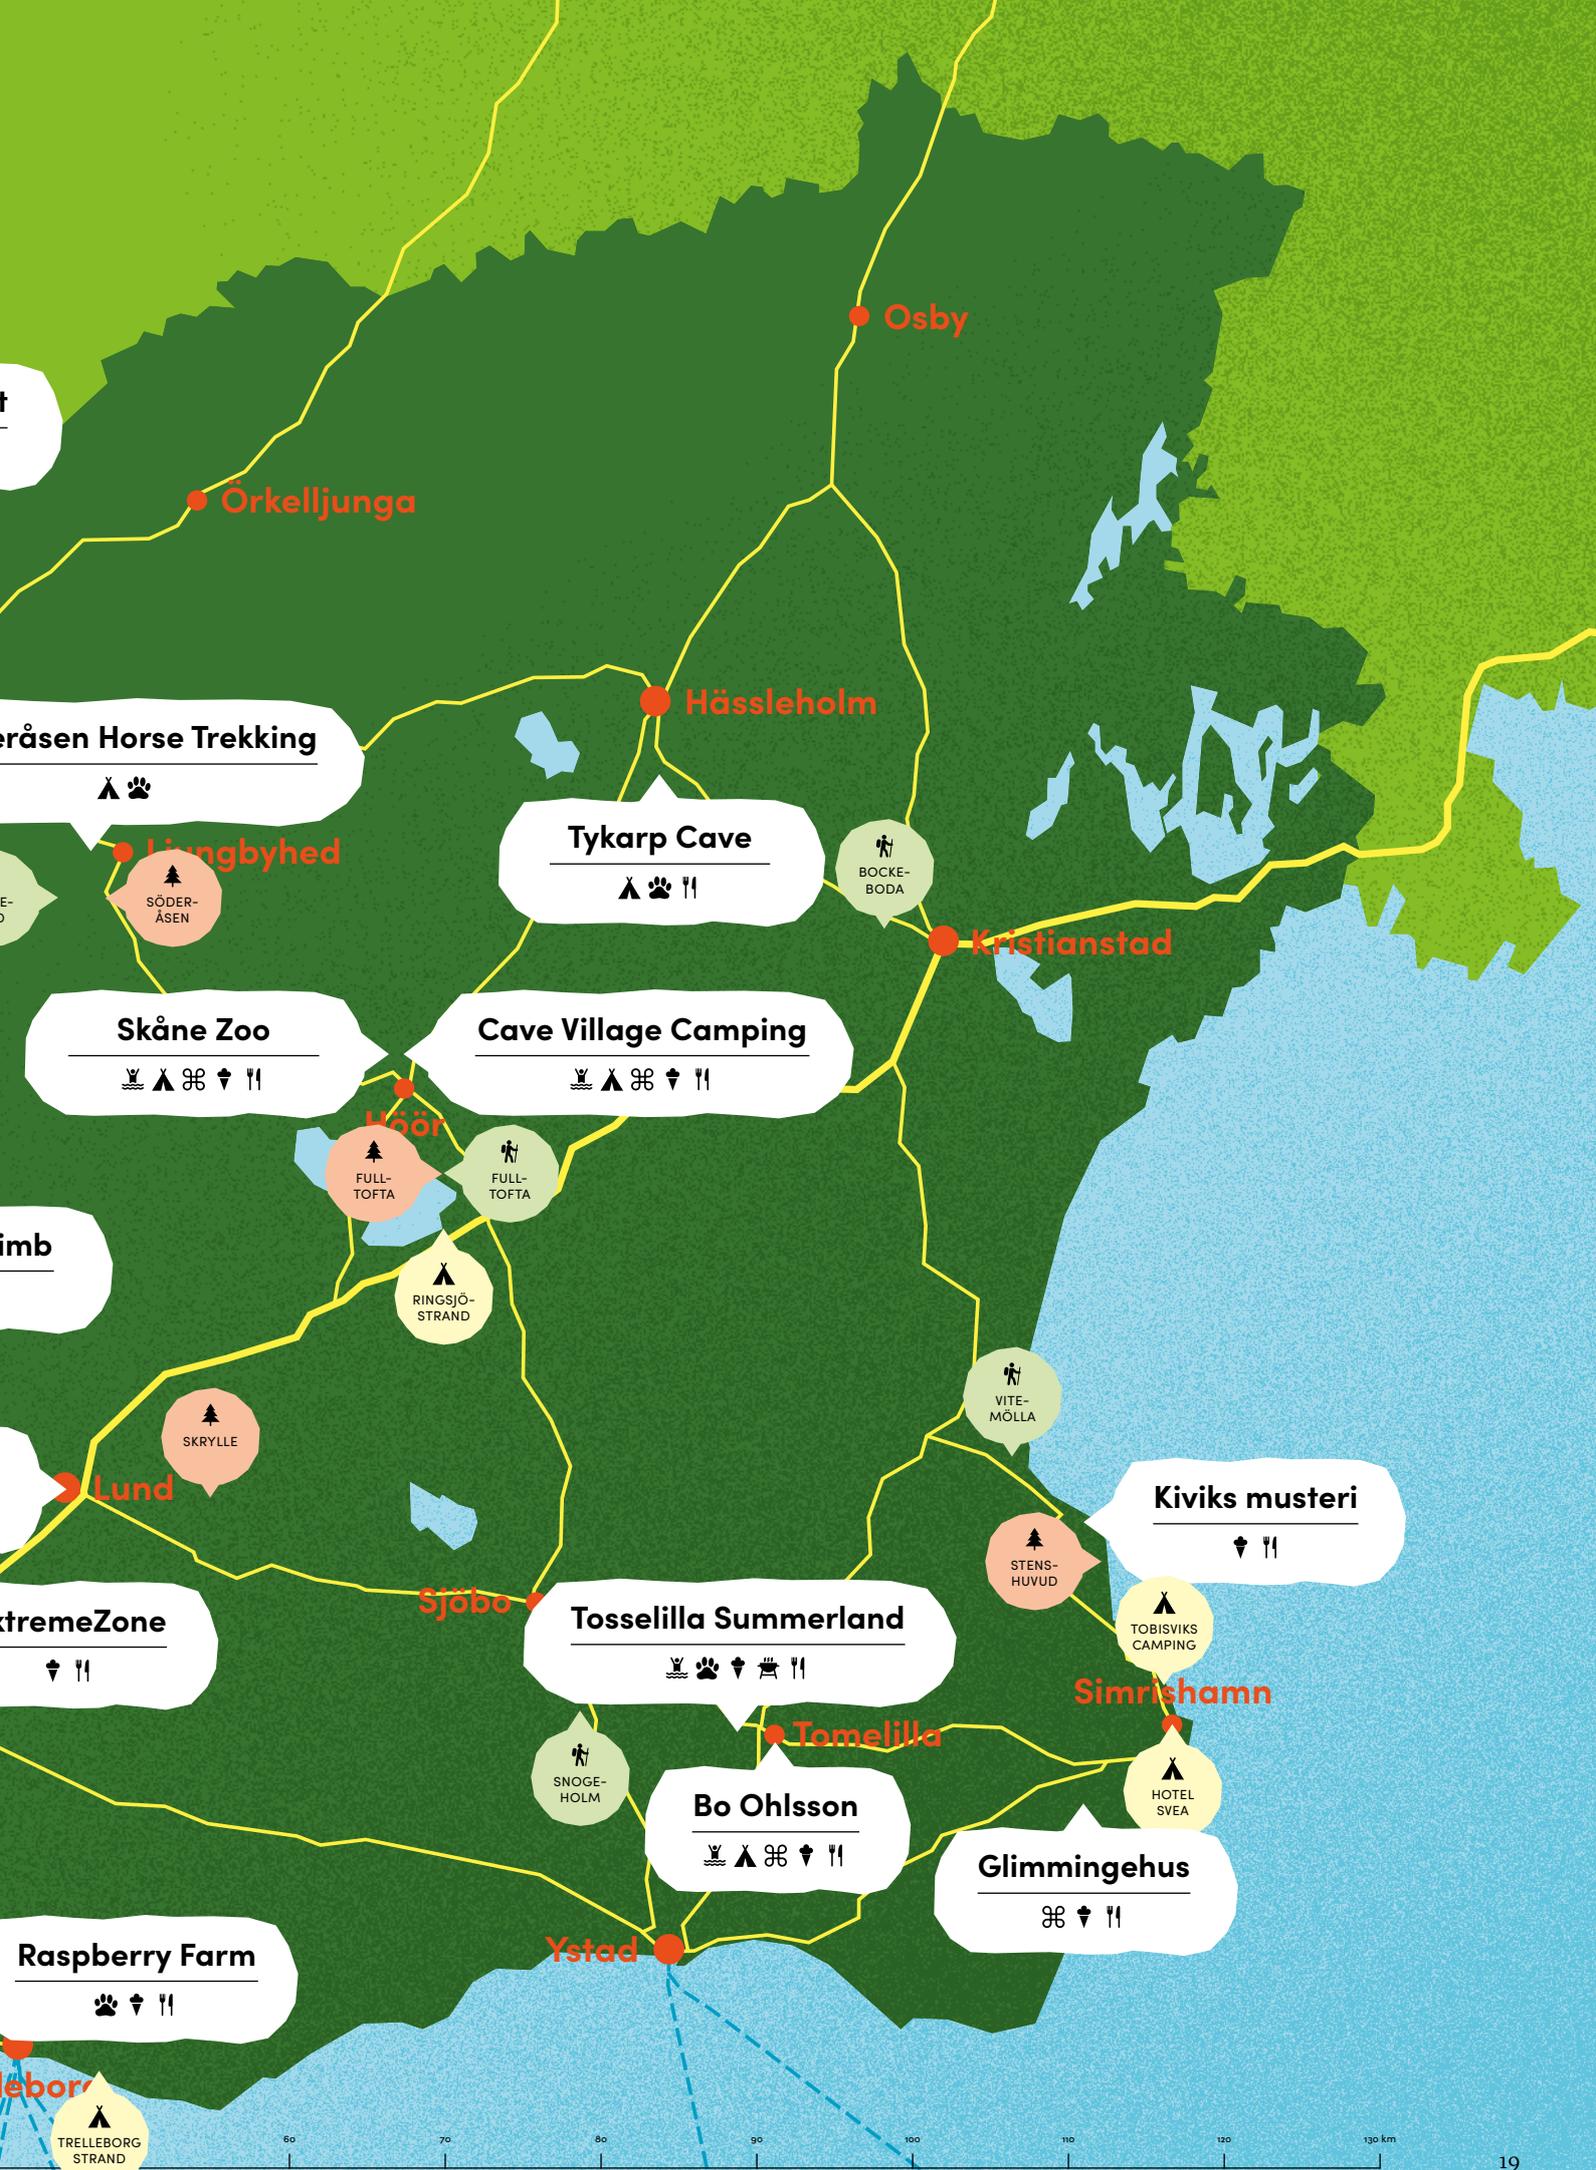

Another game is to count animals, for example, how many horses or cows did you see along the way? First to see ten wins the game! Or you can count colors (of cars, roofs of houses, etc.).

Let your fantasy go wild and have a great trip!

LEAVE NO TRASH BEHIND!

Be outdoors, enjoy and experience! Skåne is full of fantastic parks, white sandy beaches and lush forests. Take the opportunity and create your own exciting adventures in our wonderful natural environments. In Sweden there is a Commons Law regarding the right to public access to land and water. It is up to each individual to be aware of this law and abide to it. Swedish Commons Law stipulates the following:

You may pass through privately-owned land without asking permission. Be respectful towards animals and the natural environment. When you paddle, surf, climb, run, cycle or just take a walk in the woods, you are exercising your right of access to the natural environment.

PROTECTED PLANT SPECIES — You may pick wild flowers, berries and mushrooms. Some species are protected by law. Find out which species are protected in your area.

TREES AND BRANCHES — You may gather and use twigs and branches that are lying on the ground to light a fire or build a hut. You may not cut branches, bark or leaves from living trees. It is also prohibited to fell trees or remove bushes.

FIRE — You may light fires in nature to barbecue and cook. Make sure you have water close to hand, to extinguish the fire. Better still, light your fire beside a lake or stream. If you are unsure whether you are allowed to light a fire, contact the fire safety authority near you. Do not light fires on stone surfaces or cliff overhangs. Stone will crack when exposed to excessive heat.

TRASH — It is prohibited to discard trash in the natural environment. Bring it with you and place it in a trash can. Plastic materials, cans and bottle tops hurt animals and cause irreparable damage to the environment.

GATES — You may pass through a field if you do not disturb the animals. Close the gate after you to in order to prevent animals escaping.
